RAMASWAMY SAYS HE WILL PARDON JAN 6 PROTESTERS

SHANKAR RAJ / Washington

In a statement that has raised eyebrows, Republican Party's presidential aspirant Vivek Ramaswamy has vowed that he will pardon former US president Donald Trump and all peaceful January 6 protesters if he gets elected as the next US president in 2024. With leaders of the far-right groups that helped drive the attack on the Capitol sentenced to long prison terms, attention has shifted to the fraught process of prosecuting Donald Trump.

The 38-year-old Indian American entrepreneur told ABC news that "If Donald Trump's the nominee, yes, I will support him, and if I'm the president, yes, I will pardon him because that will help reunite the country."

Ramaswamy has started going up the popularity charts after he denounced the US Justice Department for its "political persecution" of non-violent protesters at the Republican primary presidential debate last month.

"America now has a two-tiered justice system: Antifa (anti-fascists) and BLM (Black Lives Matter) rioters roam free while peaceful January 6 protesters are imprisoned without bail. Biden's Department of Injustice has executed over 1,000 arrests for nonviolent offenses related to January 6, casting a dark shadow over Lady Justice and the foundational principles of our legal system," he later said in a statement.

"To unify this country, I commit as president to pardon all Americans who were targets of politicized federal prosecutions and those denied due process. This includes all peaceful, nonviolent January 6 protesters who were denied their constitutional due process rights," he said.

Apoorva defends husband

Apoorva Ramaswamy, the wife of Republican Party's contender for the party's nomination for presidential elections, Vivek Ramaswamy, strongly defended her husband saying he is not a monster as it is being made out in a section of the voters. Reports indicate women voters have found him 'abnoxious, arrogant and annoying' especially during the party's debate held last month. But speaking on a show called "Elizabeth Vargas Reports" on TV, Apoorva, rejected all of those characterisations, putting an emphasis on how he has been received by voters on the campaign trail. "What I know of Vivek is that he is such a kind, generous parent, partner. We have built a life together and he has made many sacrifices for my career and he has been the most wonderful person to create a life with.

That kind of generosity does not get communicated on a debate stage and it's one data point, but I hope that people will learn more about him. "What people saw on the debate stage was Vivek the fighter, and he can do that ... but what we're really in this for is his vision for our country, for the future, for the future generations, and our children. When he's actually giving his vision, it's really inspiring, and I know people once they come to hear him, will have a true vision of what hope he really represents," she added.

Australia, China open first high-level dialogue in 3 yrs

AP / Taipei (Taiwan)

Australia and China opened their first high-level dialogue in three years on Thursday in a sign of a slight thaw to relations between countries that have clashed on everything from human rights to Covid-19 origins to trade. "I welcome the recent positive developments in the bilateral relationship, but we know that there is more work to do," said Craig Emerson, the head of the Australian delegation and a former trade minister.

The dialogue being held in Beijing will focus on trade, people-to-people links, and security.

China's former Foreign Minister Li Zhaoxing said the two countries should work together, but added that "we should adhere to the liberalization of trade and jointly oppose the Cold War mentality, bloc confrontation and trade protectionism". Beijing often uses those terms in opposing the actions of Western countries, particularly the US.

During the freeze in relations with Beijing, Australia formed a nuclear partnership with the US and the United Kingdom that enables Australia to access nuclear-powered submarines. Australia's current Foreign Minister Penny Wong has sought to stabilize the two countries' relationship since her party won elections last year. On Thursday, Australia's Prime Minister Anthony Albanese also met with China's Premier Li Qiang at the sidelines of the Association of Southeast Asian Nations (ASEAN) summit in Indonesia, describing the engagement as positive.

"I told Premier Li that we would continue to cooperate where we can disagree where we must, and engage in our national interest," Albanese said to reporters, according to a statement from his office, saying he would visit China later this year at the invitation of China's leader Xi Jinping. The previous Australian government passed laws that ban covert foreign interference in domestic politics, barring Chinese-owned telecommunications giant Huawei from rolling out Australia's 5G network due to security concerns, and calling for an independent investigation of the COVID-19 pandemic.
